

Jack Bruce, Blues You Can't Lose

Some they march while some stand still
Some they die while others live
Some they laugh while some they cry
Some hang on while some pass by

Some are high and some are low
Some are sure and some don't know
Some are weak and some are strong
Some are here and some are gone

With all these things
In a poor man's mind
He gotta have the blues
He can't leave behind

With all these things
In a poor man's mind
He gotta have the blues
He can't leave behind
