

Jack Bruce, Close Enough For Love

Close enough
Close enough for love
Will the pieces flow together
Close enough
Fitted like a glove
People can be friends and lovers

Spending the time
Feeling that I'm
Living outside love
Without love
Nothing can grow

Close enough
Close enough for love
Play the changes through together
Feel it love
Growing in my heart
Watch the fire start
To burn love

Spending the time
Feeling that I'm
Living without love
Without love
Nothing tastes right
Without love
Without love

Close enough
Close enough for love
When push comes to shove you find love
Close enough
Close enough for love
People can be friends and lovers
