

Jack Bruce, Obsession

You're my obsession
Driving me day by day
Burning obsession
You're bringing me down the hard way
Trying to keep it in the shadows
But this love is much too hard to hide
You're my obsession, baby
Locked so deep inside

Stolen moments
Searing me like a flame
Those stolen moments
I endlessly call your name
I can't see no end
We're driving down a one-way street to nowhere
Your my obsession, baby,
Our love is suicide

You're my obsession
Driving me day by day
Burning obsession
You're bringing me down the hard way
Tring to keep it in the shadows
But this love is much too hard to hide

Our love is suicide

You're my obsession
Burning obsession
You're my obsession
