

Jack Frost, Dark Ages

we saw this world shining bright oh, days in paradise
back to the dark ages
where I still belong
where I always was

and the sun was shining bright oh, we had days in paradise I'm going back to the dark ages
back to the dark ages
