

Jack Greene, Ever Since My Baby Went Away

(Ever since my baby went away)

Haven't seen a moonbeam haven't heard a robbin sing ever since my baby went away

Haven't slept one single night wondering if she's all right ever since my baby went away

I'll walk alone till she returns I miss her tender kiss

I cry when I'm alone I'm not brave enough I guess

Wanna kiss that pretty face home has been a lonely place

Ever since my baby went away

[piano]

I'll walk alone till she returns...
