

Jack Greene, Everybody Knew But You And Me

[Both]

It's so plain to see that we're both happy and we're both as proud as we can be
Everybody knows we love each other everybody knows but you and me

[Jack]

They all say that we're the perfect couple

[Jeannie]

And they know we never disagree

[Both]

Everybody know we're true and faithful everybody knows but you and me

[Jeannie]

How can we keep on pretending sharing love that's nothing but a lie

[Both]

Outside we both have smiling faces

[Jack]

While inside we both would like to die

[Both]

Everywhere we go we're always carefull of the things our friends might hear and see

Everybody knows our love is lasting everybody knows but you and me

Everybody knows but you and me
