

Jack Greene, I Don't Need Tomorrow

I don't need tomorrow I had yesterday
I know that I feel better if I just forget her and never let her mem'ry get in my way
I could lose all my sorrow with someone new tomorrow
But I don't need tomorrow I had yesterday
I don't need a new love to help me forget the past
Because I want your mem'ry in my heart to always last
Tomorrow might be the day a new love comes my way
But I don't need tomorrow I had yesterday
[steel]
I don't need a new love...
