

Jack Greene, I Will Always

[Both]

Loving you I will always and wanting you I will always
Remembering you I will always and nothing can stop my loving you
Missing you I will always and needing you I will always
And remembering you I will always and nothing can stop my loving you
Times will come and go and memories won't grow old
And happiness oh I know that I've found all with you Loving you I will always and needing you I will always
Remembering you I will always and nothing can stop my loving you
