

Jack Greene, Just A Little While Ago

Just a little while ago my heart was living and my teardrops had forgotten how to flow
Cause to me all her love she had been giving but I died inside a little while ago
She used to hold my hand and say she loved me and that was just a little while ago
I never know that so much could happen between now and just a little while ago
Just a little while ago I started grieving and the winds of loneliness began to blow
Just a little while ago she said I'm leaving oh I died inside a little while ago [ guitar ]
Just a little while ago I started grieving...
Yes I died inside a little while ago
