Jack Greene, Only A Woman Like You

Only a woman like you can make a man of me For a man like me can't go through life alone Only a woman like you can make a man of me Without your love I'm weak but with your love I'm strong

Down every road I'll have to walk and every path I'll have to cross I'll need someone who'll always stand by me Someone who can take my smallest dream and put it into the greatest thing Darling only you can make a man of me Only a woman like you...
Without your love I'm weak but with your love I'm strong
