

Jack Greene, Today I Started Loving You Again

Today I started loving you again I'm right back where I've really always been
I got over you just long enough to let my heartache mend
And today I started loving you again

Oh what a fool I was to think I could get by
With only these few million tears I've cried
Well I should have known that the worst was yet to come
And that crying time for me had just begun
Cause today I started loving you again...
I got over you just long enough...
Yes today I started loving you again
