

Jack Harlow, Gang Gang Gang

Ride for my dogs
Lie for my dogs
Die for my dogs
Ride for my dogs
Lie for my dogs
Die for my dogs
Because its
Because its

Home for the holidays
My friend pulled me to the side like did you hear about Marcus
Our Marcus?
Yea our Marcus
A bunch of girls say he raped them in the back of some target
They say he drove em back there in his car, and then he parked it
And
The rest is even darker
Wait which Marcus?
Cause it can't be-
Yes our marcus
The same Marcus we collected Pokémon cards with
The one with perfect grades that has family in New Orleans
Yes that Marcus
He's got 7 rape charges

Ride for my dogs
Lie for my dogs
Die for my dogs
Ride for my dogs
Lie for my dogs
Die for my dogs
Because its
Because its

Home for the holidays
My friend pulled me to the side like did you hear about Kevin Kevin who?
Our Kevin
What happened
He got arrested
They found a bunch of messages he sent to lil kids
And apparently he met up with this 10 year old and the now the kids saying he got molested
Molested by who?
By Kevin
Nah it's gotta be a different Kevin
Look I'm telling you it's Kevin, that we've known since we were seven
The one who's Dad's a reverend
The same Kevin we spend every weekend with... and call brethren

Ride for my dogs
Lie for my dogs
Die for my dogs
Ride for my dogs
Lie for my dogs
Die for my dogs
Because its

Truthfully It's family til it can't be
Gang til it ain't
Twins but it depends
Brothers until somethin is uncovered
Dawgs until the lifting of the fog
I always got you turns into well I never thought you

Years of camaraderie
Suddenly disappear
Almost like you never were here
Unconditional love
Becomes very conditioned when push comes to shove
And all that talk of taking bullets suddenly feels foolish
Pictures with him turn to ad campaigns you gotta pull it
Feet held to the fire we hold accountable the ones we hold dear
Out of morals but mainly fear
The choice becomes clear
And Years of camaraderie
Suddenly disappear

Almost like you never were here
