

Jack Ingram, Don't Want To Hurt

I look around and all I see is people trying to find a reason
This world can hand out such a beatin'
and they don't wanna hurt anymore
When we were young it all seemed to be easy Everything within reach, one broken heart and we're retreatin'
Cause we don't wanna hurt anymore

Chorus:

Don't want to
Don't want to
Don't want to hurt anymore

You look at me and you say you feel sorry, you never understood and you never knew the things I wanted

I just don't wanna hurt anymore

I keep trying to explain myself and Figure, why bother what's the use
I finally realized that all that matters is
I don't wanna hurt anymore

REPEAT CHORUS

I look around and all I see is people trying to find a reason
This world hands out such a beatin'
And they don't wanna hurt anymore

REPEAT CHORUS THREE TIMES
