

Jack Ingram, Fool

The neon's burning both ends of another night
Everybody's living way to loud
Tryin' hard to act like everything's alright
Anything to keep from coming down

Chorus

Fool, you're fooling yourself
Don't you know that closing time will tell
If you think think you're fooling anybody else
Fool, you're fooling yourself

Telling anyone who'll listen that it won't be long
Any day now she'll come back to you
And you'll forgive her everything that she's done wrong
You figure it's the least that you can do

Chorus

Fool, you're fooling yourself
Don't you know that closing time will tell
If you think think you're fooling anybody else
Fool, you're fooling yourself

There ain't no problem you can't solve with one more beer
But there's nothing you can do about last call
You don't to go home but you can't stay here
It's too bad you ain't got no place to fall

Chorus 2X

Fool, you're fooling yourself
Don't you know that closing time will tell
If you think think you're fooling anybody else
Fool, you're fooling yourself

Fool, you're fooling yourself
