

Jack Ingram, Red, White & Blues

The skys lighting up and everybody's so high
Come take my hand its the Fourth of July
God Bless America and all of that shit
I should probably feel better but I feel I should quit

Chorus

So raise a flag for the boys who've paid their dues
So I could be free here to live with these blues
No it doesn't seem right everybodys so high
And I'm crying the blues on the Fourth of July

Take a walk downtown it's a beautiful day
Smoke a cigarette and watch the parade
We'll sing God Bless America and all of that stuff
I should probably feel better but I've had enough

Chorus

So raise a flag for the boys who've paid their dues
So I could be free here to live with these blues
No it doesn't seem right everybodys so high
And I'm crying the blues on the Fourth of July

No it doesnt seem right everybodys so high
