

Jack Johnson, Fortunate Fool

She's got it all figured out
She knows what everything's about
And when anybody doubts her, or sings songs without her,
She's just so mmm

She knows the world is just her stage
And so she'll never misbehave
She gives thanks for what they gave her
Man they practically made her,
Into a mmm

She's the one that stumbles when she talks about
The seven foreign films that she's checked out
Such a fortunate fool
She's just too good to be true
She's such a fortunate fool
She's just so mmm

She's got it all figured out
She knows what everything's about
And if anybody doubts her, or sings songs about her
She's just so mmm

Well she's the one who stumbles when she talks about
So maybe we shouldn't talk about such a fortunate fool
She's just too good to be true
She's such a fortunate fool
She's just so mmm
