

Jack Johnson, Go On

In my rear view
I watch you watching the twilight
Behind the telephone lines
With nothing to prove, or to assume
Just thinking that your thoughts are different than mine
In my rear view
I watch you
And I gave you your life, would you give me mine
I see you slowly swim away
Cause the light is leaving town
To a place that I cant be
But theres no apologies
Just go on
Just go on
Theres still so many things
I wanna say to you
But go on
Just go on
Were bound by blood thats moving
From the moment that we start
From the moment that we start
I see your perfect little lies
Watch the shadows of the clouds
And the surface of the ocean out the window of a plane
I get nervous when I fly
Im used to walking with my feet
Turbulence is like a sigh that I cant help but over think
What is the purpose of my life
If it doesnt ever do
With learning to let it go
Live vicariously through
You could do the same
Its the least you could do
Cause its a lonely little chain
If you dont add to it
So go on
Just go on
Theres still so many things
I wanna say to you
But go on
Just go on
Were bound by blood and love
From the moment that we start
Just go on
Just go on
Theres still so many things
I wanna say to you
Just go on
Just go on
Were bound by blood thats moving
From the moment that we start
From the moment that we start
