

Jack Johnson, No Other Way

When your mind is a mess so is mine
I cant sleep cause it hurts when I think My thoughts aren't at peace with the plans that we make chances we take they're, not yours and not mine there's waves that can break all the words that we say and the words that we mean words can fall short can't see the unseen cause the world is awake for somebody's sake now, please close your eyes woman please get some sleep

And know that if I knew all of the answers I would not hold them from you'd know all the things that i'd know we told each other, there is no other way

Well too much silence can be misleading You're drifting I can hear it in the way that your breathing We don't really need to find reason Cause out the same door that it came well its leaving its leaving Leaving like a day that's done and part of a season Resolve is just a concept that's as dead as the leaves But at least we can sleep, its all that we need When we wake we will find Our minds will be free to go to sleep

And know that if I knew
not hold them from you'd
know all the things that i'd know
we told each other, there is no other way
