

Jack Russell, 24/7

it's been so long is it still cool to call? i've just been thinking baby thinking that's all i do for loving you you know is my saving grace woman woman are you really a fatal femme? woman woman my former lover is my best friend again twenty four seven
the dreams you're having ain't there by mistake 'cause when i come to you there's too much at stake late at night when you don't know what to do well that's when ill be waiting for you woman woman are you really shedding your skin? woman woman my best friend turned into my lover again twenty four seven baby i'll make the time yeah you'll always be mine twenty four seven three sixty five i'll be right there by your side
twenty four seven three sixty five i'll be right there by your side
'cause i love you
twenty four seven
twenty four seven
twenty four seven
twenty four seven
twenty four seven
twenty four seven
twenty four seven three sixty five i'll be right there by your side
twenty four seven
twenty four seven
twenty four seven
twenty four seven
twenty four seven
