

Jack Russell, Don't Know Why

i remember something then it fades to nothing and as i sit and smile the days roll on and on what's been taken from me is everything i could be all i ever was and everything i am the simple things in life are getting hard to find day after day lost within your mind i don't know where i'm headed to my friend i don't know why i stand up to just sit back down again i try to remember who i've been but i don't know why i don't know where i don't know when people once dear to me now just strangers i see shadows of a life that used to be so clear all the memories are gone but somehow life still goes on while i sit and smile staring at the floor erasing all your life a sentence without crime daze after daze starting to unwind
i don't know where i'm headed to my friend
the simple things in life are getting hard to find
daze after daze starting to unwind
i try to remember all i've been
but i don't know why i don't know where i don't know when
