

Jack Russell, The Best Is Yet To Come

you make me want to be a better man you make me want to make it right i know this love is hard to understand but in the end we'll see the light so many things i feel i want to say but simple words will never do can't let this love we've found just slip away not after all that we've been through love is a game that we're playing for keeps we're riding on this merry go round no changing horses 'cause the water's too deep got to hold on to this magic we've found woman if i didn't know you so well i'd swear those were tears in your eyes babe where we're going there's no turning back maybe it's time we realise
the best is yet to come listen baby to each other we've sopped much to give our love's a fire that's burning true we'll take each other where we've never been i couldn't be if not for you all these emotions that are coming to life they keep us spinning around and around a tightrope walker on the edge of a knife got to hold on and never look down
babe where we're going there's no turning back maybe it's time we realise
here it comes here it comes love is a game that we're playing for keeps we're riding on this merry go round
babe where we're going there's no turning back maybe it's time we realise
babe where we're going there's no turning back maybe it's time we realise
the best is yet to come
the best is yet to come
