

Jack's Broken Heart, Crosses Count

picturesque thoughts
faded images of an angel hard to tell you what you truly mean when you are just

fading away
parting ways is just ripping me in two.
i can see it in your eyes
this is goodbye.

faded images slowly torn apart have to tell you that you complete my heart but you're already

parting ways is just ripping me in two emptiness is in your eyes
this is goodbye.

eyes shut tight, keeping fingers crossed. just couldn't see, we're star-crossed as your life begins, this fairytale ends next time we touch, we'll just shake hands maybe an embrace
but only as friends!

eyes shut tight,
fingers forever crossed!
