

Jack's Mannequin, Made For Each Other Part 2:

You can breathe, you can breathe now
You can breathe but the air is running out
You can breathe, you can breathe now
You can breathe but the air is running out on you

You waited for me in the rain
In the parking lot
Cold hands, lips blue, clothes stuck to you
You could've phoned me for a ride
It's a mess out there
You said "The rain's the rain"
Some air'd be good for you
(You can breathe, you can breathe now)
Well, good for you
(You can breathe but the air is running out)

You get in my car where it's warm
You cannot forget
Skin new, hands true, my hands all over you
So, what's another night with seats rolled back?
They can't see through
Rain's the rain, some air'd be good for you

You can breathe, you can breathe now
You can breathe but the air is running out
You can breathe, you can breathe now
You can breathe but the air is running out on you

And you walked for miles down
The shores of California
To the coast of Mexico
Where you could hide
And no one had to know

You can breathe, you can breathe now
You can breathe but the air is running out
You can breathe, you can breathe now
You can breathe but the air is running (out on you now)

You can breathe, you can breathe now (out on you now)
You can breathe but the air is running out (out on you now)
You can breathe, you can breathe now (out on you now)
You can breathe but the air is running (out on you now) out on you
Running out on you

(And maybe we were made for each other)
You can breathe but the air is running out
(And maybe the world'll look like this forever)
(And maybe we were made for each other)
You can breathe but the air is running out
(And maybe the world'll look like this forever)
(And maybe we were made for each other)
(And maybe we were made for each other)
(And maybe we were made for each other)
