

Jack White, Love Is Selfish

love is such a selfish thing it's always crying me-me-me and it's always trying to mess up all my plans and i work real hard to make you understand yeah i try my best to help you understand i've been trying over the years to try and overcome these fears but nothing i come up with proves i can

and i work real hard to make you understand

i'm on a train but i can not rest upon it i'm on a train but it won't stay on the rails and i've got a sailboat with her name painted on it but i don't know how to sail someone smarter than me and you might end up solving a clue or two but could they make it happen with their hands? could they build it up from nothing with their hands? i could lose my mind just trying to understand

and i'll try my best to help you understand
