

Jack White, Taking Me Back (Gently)

I'll bet you do
When you take out the figures
And when you pull all the triggers,
Well you're taking me back
You're taking me back

When you listen to mystics
As you lay at your picnics
You're taking me back
You're taking me back

I'll bet you do
But not for long
I'm alone
I'll bet you do

When i am down on trhe floor
You will see
Taht no one will notice me
It's braking my back
braking my back
when you drop the mail off to me and make us both coffee
are you taking it back?
Are taking me back?

I will be you do
But not for long

I will bet you do feel alone
But nopt for long

I'll breakimg me back
I'll breakimg me back

When you forgive te friction
And you talk about christmas
Are you taking mty back Traking my back?
