

Jackie Greene, I'm So Gone

I'm not going to be civil i'm not gonna watch my tongue or what i say i'm gonna dance with the devil gonna dig out dirt for stiff and shallow grave yes and i'm so gone

such a long long way from home i'm holding out for something i can't feel

yes and i'm so lost
such a long long way to cross

i can't feel

hey did you hear about vegas she's got mouths to feed and only one hole keeps them fed a gray is starting to plague us and it won't be long before someone else is dead

yes i'm so gone

i can't feel

oh nothing is sacred you just do what you do just to survive but show me something that's naked i'll show you something that's alive

yes and i'm so gone
but my feet just drag me home

i can't feel
