

Jackie Lomax, Everyday Is Black

You wore black when I met you
I'll wear black when you're gone
It was so hard to get you
'Cause you lost your other love

You were gone on a Monday
Tuesday you came back
Now that you're gone forever
Now my everyday is black

Every day is black, every day is black
Every day is black, every day is black

Kisses in the morning made my empty feeling end
Now my days are black dear and that feeling's back again

You might say that you're blue dear
But I feel much worse than that
I can't say that I'm blue dear
'Cause my everyday is black

Every day is black, every day is black
Every day is black, every day is black