

Jackie Lomax, I Keep On Remembering

My heart is broken now I can't stop the tears
I keep remembering all those wonderful years
Your voice and laughter seem to ring in my ears
And I keep on remembering

My heart is broken now I can't stop the pain
It needs your love to make it feel right again
The days of happiness I cannot regain
And I keep on remembering

I remember all your kisses
And the time you said that this is forever
I remember feeling happy
But now she's gone I can't go on without her
I keep on remembering

My heart is broken now but this is the end
Or will I have a chance to bring her back again
She made me oh so happy, but until then
I'll keep on remembering
