

Jackie Lomax, Just A Little Bit-O-Your Love

A flash of sunshine on an icy day
Maybe just enough to blow my blues away
A little shelter in a raging storm
Maybe just enough to keep me safe an' warm
Just a little bit-o-your love - will surely help
Just a little bit-o-your love ' is gonna help me help myself.
Just a little bit-o-your love - just a little bit-o-your love
Just a little bit-o-your love - will do.

Cash money when I really need
Make a true-friend of a friend indeed
A little music when I'm feelin' blue,
Maybe just enough to make me think of you.
Just a little bit-o-your love - will surely help
Just a little bit-o-your love - is gonna help me help myself.
Just a little bit-o-your love - just a little bit-o-your love
Just a little bit-o-your love - will do.

Just enough to turn on a light
Just enough to make it alright
Just enough to set me straight
Just enough to know it ain't too late

Just a little bit-o-your love - will surely help
Just a little bit-o-your love - is gonna help me help myself.
Just a little bit-o-your love - just a little bit-o-your love
Just a little bit-o-your love - will do.

A flash of sunshine on an icy day
Maybe just enough to blow my blues away
A little shelter in a raging storm
Maybe just enough to keep me safe an' warm
Just a little bit-o-your love - will surely help
Just a little bit-o-your love - is gonna help me help myself.
Just a little bit-o-your love - just a little bit-o-your love
Just a little bit-o-your love - just a little bit-o-your love.
