Jackie Lomax, No Reason

Got to get my head together Throw my clothes in a bag 'Cause I can't go on forever My conversation is a drag Ain't got no reason to be happy Ain't got no reason to be sad But I just got reason to be mad

Catch a cab down to the station Jump a fast movin' train For some distant destination Won't be back this way again Ain't got no reason to be happy Ain't got no reason to be sad But I just got reason to be mad

Ain't got no reason

Ain't got no reason

If I ever get to see her
I won't know what to say
'Cause I still don't wanna leave her
But my wife won't let her stay
Ain't got no reason to be happy
Ain't got no reason to be sad
But I just got reason to be mad

Ain't got no reason
