

Jackie Lomax, Pawn In Your Game

I'm just a pawn in your game
I'm just a pawn in your game
I know you're breaking all of the rules
You just making a paper-chain of fools
And I'm just a pawn in your game

I'm just a throw of your dice
I'm just a throw of your dice
I know you got to make your move
You've got worlds to shake, you've got a lot to prove
And I'm just a throw of your dice

I'm just your sometime man
Someone for when no other can make it
Just a casual thing
If it don't make your heart sing, you can fake it
But I'm just a pawn in your game

I'm just your sometime man
Someone for when no other can make it
It's just a casual thing
Don't make your heart sing, you can fake it
But I'm just a pawn in your game

I'm just a thorn in your side
I'm just a thorn in your side
I know you've got to move on up
No matter what I do it'll never be enough
And I'm just a thorn in your side
