

Jackie Lomax, Roll On

Sitting in a fantasy
My life is in a mess
Giving to a woman
Who can take more than she gets

Roll on, Roll on
Roll on into something better

Jumpin' on a lady
Who was only being nice
You know I heard the first time
She had to ask me twice

Roll on, Roll on
Roll on into something better

Roll on, get it on
Tell me what is being done
To get me off this downy run
Move on, everyone
Getting old is no fun
You can ask anyone

Running into corners
And kicking over stones
Don't you people understand
I need to be alone

Roll on, Roll on
Roll on into something better

Sitting in a fantasy
My life is in a mess
Don't you people understand
Or can't you even guess

Roll on, Roll on
Roll on into something better
