

Jackie Lomax, Take My Word

Take my word

I'm the biggest fool you ever heard of any day, any day

I drove my sweet lover far away

And I can't love you, oh no, I can't love you

I had the kind of lover to be proud of

Then again I had to play the field

I never thought of anything but myself

I never knew how bad I made her feel

Take my word

I'm the biggest fool you ever heard of any day, any day

I drove my sweet lover far away

And I can't love you, oh no, I can't love you

Day after day as she was loving me

I threw her love away

Night after night as I was loving you

I couldn't see the light

No, no, no

Oh take my word

I'm the biggest fool you ever heard of any day, any day

I drove my sweet lover far away

And I can't love you, oh no, I can't love you

Take my word
