Jackie Lomax, Take My Word

Take my word I'm the biggest fool you ever heard of any day, any day I drove my sweet lover far away And I can't love you, oh no, I can't love you

I had the kind of lover to be proud of Then again I had to play the field I never thought of anything but myself I never knew how bad I made her feel

Take my word I'm the biggest fool you ever heard of any day, any day I drove my sweet lover far away And I can't love you, oh no, I can't love you

Day after day as she was loving me I threw her love away Night after might as I was loving you I couldn't see the light

No, no, no

Oh take my word I'm the biggest fool you ever heard of any day, any day I drove my sweet lover far away And I can't love you, oh no, I can't love you

Take my word
