Jackie Lomax, You've Got Me Thinking

You sure don't have a lot But you use what you got And you got thinking about it You got me thinking I just ain't sure that I will

What I see in your face
This ain't the time or the place
But you got me thinking about it
You got me thinking
I just ain't sure that I will

Baby, you're sure in for a big surprise If I can believe what I see in your eyes

You may not know what to do But I'm going to give you a clue Cause you got thinking You got me thinking

And if I can believe what I see in your eyes'

You may not know what to do But I'm going to give you a clue You got me thinking You got me thinking about it I just ain't sure that I will

You know you got me thinking Something's on my mind

Thinking, thinking, thinking
