

Jackie McCullough, New Day Of The Lord

Breaking forth is sunshine after the darkest night
Coming through the shadows the bursting of new sight
Waking up from dawning with the hope of light
Standing clear is the vision, this new day of the Lord

(Chorus)

This is a new day, this is a great day
This is a new day, this new day of the Lord
The sun is shining, heavens gates are widening
Praises are lifted up today, this new day of the Lord

Retrieving broken promises is now my desire
Climbing my high mountain seems so easy now

(Repeat Chorus)

It's a new day
It's a great day
It's a new day
New day of the Lord
