

Jacks Of All Trades, Boardgames

Can't you see which way you're walking now
Opposite to hell is the place I wanna dwell in Blind you cannot see it's in front of your face
It's a change to get to a better place

Jesus loves you someone said to you
Jesus sees you what you're up to Jesus saves you if you wanna take
Him to live in your heart take him

Shaking - your head is shaking
Breaking - your heart is breaking
Aching - your soul is aching
Faking - this is no boardgame
No

Can't you see the sin you do now
Pretty soon find out no doubt
Can I call you Rita senorita
Gimme the blood of Christ a little bit
