

Jackson 5, Skywriter

(Chorus)

Skywriter

Sweep your silver pen,
Across the sky So high

Skywriter

Won't you write the biggest

I love you

Cross the sky

She don't read the letters

I write anymore

Sorry I upset her

But I wasn't sure

Now I know I love her

I hope that she will see

A message high above her

That you write for me, yeah.

(Chorus)

Hey Hey

Send a box of cande

And flowers every day

Still she wouldn't listen

Her pride got in the way

Now it's up to you

It won't fade away

Write it on the heavens

Love will make it stay, yeah

(Chorus)
