

Jackson Browne, Late For The Sky

The words had all been spoken and somehow the feeling still wasn't right and still we continued through the night tracing our steps from the beginning until they vanished into the air Trying to understand how our lives had led us there

Looking hard into your eyes there was nobody I'd ever known such an empty surprise to feel so alone

Now for me some words come easy but I know that they don't mean that much Compared with the things that are said when lovers touch you never knew what I loved in you I don't know what you loved in me maybe the picture of somebody hoping I might be

Chorus
Awake again I can't pretend and I know I'm alone and close to the end of the feeling we've known

How long have I been sleeping how long have I been drifting alone through the night how long have I been dreaming I could make it right if I closed my eyes and tried with all my might to be the one you need

Chorus

How long have I been sleeping
how long have I been drifting alone through the night how long have I been running for that morning flight through the whispered promises and the changing light Of the bed where we both lie
