

Jackson Jackson, All Alone

She's waiting on, She's waiting on that storm to come.
Into her heart, into her heart she's waiting.
She told me I must hold onto the mo-oment.
And when the moments over I'll be all alone.

(la le la, la le la, la le la, la le la)
Then I'll be all alone.
(la le la, la le la, la le la, la le la)
Then I'll be all alone.
(la le la, la le la, la le la, la le la)
Then I'll be all alone

And like a bird, yes like a bird, she'll fly away.
She never said, she never said she'd stay here.
She's waiting on, She's waiting on that ship to come.
I cannot fight, I cannot fight the ocean, all alone

(la le la, la le la, la le la, la le la)
Then I'll be all alone.
(la le la, la le la, la le la, la le la)
Then I'll be all alone.

Now kiss me on, now kiss me on my broken wings.
Don't leave me here, don't leave me in the water.
She's waiting on, She's waiting on that storm to come.
And when the rain comes down I will be washed away.

I hope, I hope we meet again.
I want, I want to hold you again.
I hope, I hope we meet again.
I'll know, I'll know until the end.
I'll be all aloooone.

(la le la, la le la, la le la, la le la)
Then I'll be all alone.
(la le la, la le la, la le la, la le la)
Then I'll be all alone.
(la le la, la le la, la le la, la le la)
Then I'll be all alone.
