

Jackson Jackson, Grab A Gun

Come on everyone
Grab a gun
Have a gun
Come on, let's be the paragon of arrogance
Everyone's time come, sometime come
But if you wanna speed it up yo, then grab a gun

Come on everyone
Grab a gun
Have a gun
Come on, let's be the paragon of arrogance
Everyone's time come, sometime come
But if you wanna speed it up yo, then grab a gun

You can't solve problems with firepower
It's not like lightning from a higher power
There's always someone on a higher tower
With more fire power or a fireflower

Like Mario when he fights with Bowser
A desperate man with a keg of powder
No matter how foul you are, there's fouler
No matter how loud you are, there's louder
There's always something deeper
Always something deeper
There's always something deeper
Always something deeper
There's always something deeper
Underground
And we shout
Here it comes

Come on everyone
Grab a gun
Have a gun
Come on, let's be the paragon of arrogance
Everyone's time come, sometime come
But if you wanna speed it up yo, then grab a gun

Come on everyone
Grab a gun
Have a gun
Come on, let's be the paragon of arrogance
Everyone's time come, sometime come
But if you wanna speed it up yo, then grab a gun

This is not working
Just not working
You can't fight fire with fire
We're hurting
Look around see the city burning
Red day dawning, sailors warning
We started this shit with global warming
It'd would have been nice if they gave us a warning
But I guess we had plenty of warnings
Every morning
Every morning there was
Always something rumbling
Always something rumbling
Always something grumbling
Always something grumbling
Always something dawning

Underground
And we shout
Here it comes

Come on everyone
Grab a gun
Have a gun
Come on, let's be the paragon of arrogance
Everyone's time come, sometime come
But if you wanna speed it up yo, then grab a gun

Come on everyone
Grab a gun
Have a gun
Come on, let's be the paragon of arrogance
Everyone's time come, sometime come
But if you wanna speed it up yo, then grab a gun

Everyone's time sometime will come
Always something deeper, kingdom come
Everyone's time sometime will come
Always something deeper, throw out your guns

Everyone's time sometime will come
Always something deeper, kingdom come
Everyone's time sometime will come
Always something deeper, throw out your guns

Come on everyone
Grab a gun
Have a gun
Come on, let's be the paragon of arrogance
Everyone's time come, sometime come
But if you wanna speed it up yo, then grab a gun

Come on everyone
Grab a gun
Have a gun
Come on, let's be the paragon of arrogance
Everyone's time come, sometime come
But if you wanna speed it up yo, then grab a gun
