

Jackson United, Long Shadow

Another song about you
Swore I wouldn't do this again
It takes some getting used to strangers
Become fast friends
Eye to eye we're disagreeing on everything
Getting closer now to desperate
So desperately

Stuck in frustration
Holdin on to nothing to no one
Stuck in frustration
Holding out giving in moving on

It's a long, long shadow from which I crawled out fo
But I can't complain
Whispers and riddles we stick to the middle
It's harder every day
Digging thru old thoughts of you
That never fit quite right
Stained and burned and torn and bruised
Now fight into fight

I can't take this long
I can't fake this strong
I keep moving on

Anger's my anchor
I sink to the bottom
Here come the vultures
Circling closer
