

Jackson United, The Land Without Law

Hey Cesar!
when are you picking us up?
cause we got flights that we gotta miss waves to catch
we need sleep and we're pissed gotta go
cause we've been dreaming of this now hi-voltage running thru my lips and I don't give a fuck about the p.a. system the president is taking you off the grid well I hope you survive the neo-liberal threats

breaking down
coming up unwound
in the end
what the fuck are we supposed to do?
blowing a fuse
what the fuck are we supposed to do?
blowing a fuse

Hey Cesar!
i'm not trying to complain but I've got to try to heal this pain and I'm sick
those shots went straight to my brain dougie kicks
the city thru the rain

the subway burns with celebration fumes and we'll run as fast as we can to the hotel room this ain't my first time in this third world fight and there's no time to rest when we can dance all night

breaking down
coming up unwound
in the end
what the fuck are we supposed to do?
blowing a fuse
what the fuck are we supposed to do?
blowing a fuse
what the fuck are we supposed to do?
blowing a fuse
what the fuck are we supposed to do?
blowing a fuse

what matters most to you?
what matters most?

blowing a fuse
blowing a fuse
blowing a fuse

blowing a fuse
