

Jacky Cheung, Something Only Love Can Do

Something Only Love Can Do you can't find your way back home Remember that the darkest hour is just before the dawn Sometimes a leap of faith is all it takes

Cause only love can see the path to set you free Just close your eyes, look inside and let your heart believe There's been a force so strong beside you all alone
You'll know it when your dream comes true
There's something only love can do

In your quest for a new horizon Set your course find a star to light your way Although the task may seem sometimes to be more than you can bear One thing you need to know you are not alone

If you believe in miracles then you can be the one To shine your light and show the world
There's nothing love can't overcome

There's something only love can do
