

Jacky Cheung, This Time Next Year

This Time Next Year
Until the morning comes
The sound of your whisper
Ringin' inside my ear
I want to hear those same sweet words next year ooh

So many lovers, other lovers came and gone
Makin' promises such forever
only till the Next one comes along

So why don't you tell me
(This time next year)
Will you still love me (Or will I be losing you)
(Why don't tell me) This time next year
After all the ups and downs
And you gonna be around

Don't ever leave me
Don't ever go away
Just tell me I got nothin' to fear
Baby this time next year

I love you so
With all of my heart and soul
Don't wanna lose you
Don't want this love grow old
Not much am I askin';
All I want is you
I feel you inside my heart
With every little thing you do

So many lovers, other lovers came and gone
Makin' promises such forever
only till the Next one comes along
