

Jacky Greco, Silhouette

Standing in the dark
Just searching for you're love

I don't know who you are
But I'm longing for you're touch

So won't you set my world alight
Perfect stranger of the night
I just want to dance before we die

All and all
and all I see is silhouettes Silhouettes In the darkness
all and all
and all I see is silhouettes
Silhouettes silhouettes

A hundred miles apart
When I'm standing next to you
A diamond in the dust
That I don't want to loose

So Come and set my world alight
Be that spark that I ignight
I just want to dance before we die

All and all
and all I see is silhouettes
Silhouettes In the darkness
all and all
and all I see is silhouettes
Silhouettes silhouettes
