

Jackyl, Kill The Sunshine

full moon rise, fear-filled skies delicious evil in her bloodshot eyes heart beats loud, to the bone one way ticket, never comin' home chorus

i got to kill all the sunshine cuz, i'm the king of the nighttime the lord of your lifeline and darkness is devine so kill all the sunshine set your clock, start your chime come midnight, we'll celebrate that your mine feel the fire my touch you're gonna get the thing that you wanted so much
