

Jacob Young, Sleep Tonight

Suns comin' up
You're comin' down
Look out your window
And the city is sound
Fame and misfortune have done all they could Misunderstood it's never all good
You know
15 minutes doesn't mean it's gonna last forever
It comes and it goes
If you know

CHORUS:

Then maybe you'll sleep tonight
Maybe you'll dream in color
Instead of black and white
And you'll wake up happy in your darkest hour
Maybe you'll sleep tonight

You sell yourself short
Faking a laugh
Cry on my shoulder
I'm watching your back
It just isn't worth the price that you pay
At the end of the day, you give it away
Hey, hey,
15 minutes doesn't mean it's gonna last forever
It comes and it goes
If you know

CHORUS REPEAT

BRIDGE:
And maybe you'll dream in color
And maybe see the light
And you'll wake up happy in your darkest hour
And maybe you'll sleep tonight

CHORUS REPEAT (2x)

BRIDGE

Maybe you'll sleep tonight (repeat until fades)
