Jade Anderson, Sugar High

Once I loved someone so deep it hurt to leave his side He was wonderful, loveable, he was truly just so Beautiful I feel so blessed he came my way

Sugar sweet, my sugar high The sweetest taste I'll ever try Your love is one I can't deny I love you, I love you, I love you

Sugar sweet, I've realized Just one look into your eyes Slowly gets me hypnotized I love you, I love you

His love was far beyond wealth and gold So much from one would I learn He was a delicate morning rain that fell to wash away my pain And bring me warmth in return

He was magical, mystical, simply irresistible This love I can't convey Oh, so wonderful, loveable, he was truly just so beautiful I feel so blessed he came my way

Sugar sweet, my sugar high The sweetest taste I'll ever try Your love is one I can't deny I love you, I love you, I love you

Sugar sweet, I've realized Just one look into your eyes Slowly gets me hypnotized I love you, I love you

Your love feels so amazing Never thought I would have found you baby To hold you, just to be near you I love you, I love

Sugar sweet, my sugar high The sweetest taste I'll ever try Your love is one I can't deny I love you, I love you, I love you
