

Jade, In Silence

Stop your words now, my sweet babe
And sleep
Bring her coffin and tranquillizers for the beast
Ill keep it all inside
Im bored of all my life

Im the reason of your decline
Ill hate you till the end of times
Ill keep it all inside
Im bored of all my life

Ill drink all your bleach!
I dont feel my legs, if you care!

Were always near to exist
But in the end all we can do is fade

And thinkin about the time
While breakin mothers pride
We are all sad ghosts

For all the lonely souls
Im prayin for the shy
Love for lepers
We feel so incomplete
Walkin trough loss and grief
We scream in silence
